EARLY EDITION DECEMBER , 2021 NEWSLETTER

DONATIONS IN MEMORY OF A LOVED ONE

Over the years the Cranberry Portage Heritage Museum has received donations from individuals/businesses In Memory of a Loved One. These have been acknowledged on our Donations Page. The executive has now decided to separate these from the regular Donations and will be making up a new acknowledgement book and these donations will be posted yearly on our Website and Facebook page.

Ted Playford, although staying on the sidelines, has played an important part in the establishment of setting up the museum and its continued success. He has volunteered and helped out with many of the projects as well as supporting his wife and our Curator, Mary-Ann over the years. His knowledge of artifacts and past history of the area and people who have contributed to the building of Cranberry Portage has been shared with many of us.

Due to the recent passing of our friend and mentor, Ted Playford, donations, with the consent of his family, are welcome to be made to the Cranberry Portage Heritage Museum in his memory.

In future anyone who wishes to have donations made on behalf of a loved one can contact the Public Relations Officer at Sandrabuchberger49@gmail.com and we can work on a notice. Thank you again for your generous donations which are much appreciated in helping out with the expenses of running your Museum our Cranberry Portage Heritage Museum executive & volunteers' is working hard, continuing to improve our museum that will preserve the archival history of both the First Nations & colonists' peoples and display historical development in the Cranberry Portage area (formally referred to as Cranberry Carrying Place in the First Nations' history).

Anyone with a membership can spend an afternoon or many afternoons examining the displays or reading the history and stories of family; relatives; friends; or other interesting people that helped create Cranberry Portage as we know it today!
