DECEMBER 2022 NEWSLETTER

THE MUSEUM IS OPEN
BY APPOINTMENT ONLY
(subject to snow removal for access)
CALL ANY DIRECTOR LISTED BELOW

The museum would like to thank all those who supported us at the Christmas Craft Sale on Nov. 26th @ the Elementary School gym. One 50/50 ticket board (a carry over from the last Artisan Market) was completed and the lucky winner was Miranda Bowman from Flin Flon taking home $100.00. Another 50/50 board has been started and once filled we will make another draw. Need a stocking stuffer – call one of the museum directors and we can arrange for a Stocking Stuffer Card showing the #'s you choose for the lucky recipient.

Tickets for the “Scratch n Win Tree” were sold and the lucky winner was Ryan Van Beek, a teacher at Frontier School Division. Presented by Museum Secretary, Patty Klimchuk.

Thank you to all those who purchased lunch and volunteers who served, Maddy Streamer, June Richardson, Marg Bragg, Barb Bragg, Patty Klimchuk, & Mabel Brewer. Also a special thank you to those who contributed soup, Olga Wesner – the borsch, Bonnie Streamer – Lemon Chicken Noodle, Mabel Brewer – Hamburger Vegie ; Homemade Buns – Bill Buchberger; egg salad -Bonnie Wesner & Doreen Bieker, Tuna salad & Holiday Meat surprise – Sandra Buchberger; desserts of cupcakes & tarts – Marg Bragg, Dianne Holmen, June Richardson, Jamie & Maddy Streamer, Marla Kustiak , Brenda Dawyduk, Patty Klimchuk & Sandra Buchberger. We would also like to thank the Bob Huck family for their donations to our luncheon, much appreciated.

Presently we are working on a grant application for several digitizing projects at the museum and we will be looking to employ several community residents/elders and students in relation to obtaining family histories. This is a very exciting project so if you are interested in the history of the community or the families who or have resided here, please contact Sandra @ 204 620 1710 or email cphmuseum@gmail.com and we will give you more information.
